The Prelude

The Call To Worship

We gather in remembrance of Jesus' last meal with his disciples

To acknowledge our kinship with the disciples who forsook him,

And to acknowledge our need of the God who did not.

Let us sing praises to heaven and earth, for God who sustained Jesus in his hour of trial is the One who sustains us in ours.

The Opening Prayer

*The Hymn 298

"There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

The Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, You come to us in astonishing ways—humble, yet with authority; helpless, yet with the power to save. You have shown us how to live lives grounded in gratitude and consecrated in service. Forgive us, Lord, for we have not followed Your lead. We have not followed You. We confess to You our cowardice, our selfishness, our failure to love as You have loved, and our poor witness to the world. Cleanse us again, we pray. Renew us, so that our lives may show forth the love and grace we have received from You...(time for silent confession)...

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

. . . we praise Your Name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of Your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

. . . as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again. . .

The Lord's Prayer

Communion

The bread that we break is a sharing in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body, for we all share the same loaf.

The cup for which we give thanks is a sharing in the blood of Christ.

The cup that we drink is our participation in the blood of Christ

The Prayer After Communion

God of grace, Your son Jesus Christ left us this holy meal of bread and wine in which we share His body and blood. May we who have celebrated this sign of His great love show in our lives the fruits of His redemption; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and forever. Amen.

SERVICE FOR REMEMBERING THE LAST SUPPER

For Christians, Maundy Thursday is a day of reassurance which culminates in the remembrance of Jesus' last meal with His disciples before His crucifixion. In three of the Gospels - Matthew, Mark, and Luke, the scriptures recounting that meal include the words of institution of The Lord's Supper; but the Gospel of John includes not the words of institution but the service of footwashing. It is from the Gospel of John that we derive the name for this day of Holy Week - MAUNDY THURSDAY. The word "Maundy" means "commandment" and refers to Jesus' words in John 13:34, "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another as I have loved you."

The Labyrinth and Prayer Quilts are available in the Fellowship Hall after this evening's service.
